APPLICATION FOR AN ORDER FOR SUBSTITUTED SERVICE

IN the matter of:	The Horticultural Industry (AWU) Award 2000
-------------------	---

Applicant

Name of applicant:	The Australian Workers Union
Address	Level 10 377 Sussex Street SYDNEY NSW 2142
Contact Person:	Jack Ellis

Application is made for an order for substituted service for the service otherwise required by the Australian Industrial Relations Commission Rules in the above matter and that service upon the parties listed in Attachment 'A' be good and sufficient service and be effected by registered post or facsimile transmission.

The grounds on which this application is made are as follows:

1. There are numerous parties respondent to this award or roped-in to it.
2. Prompt and efficient service cannot be conveniently effected upon all parties.
3. The persons and/or organisations set out in the attachment or their representatives have historically operated as the representatives of the industry in the Commission.

4. The persons and/or organisations set out in the attachment have historically proven to represent a significant and representative part of the industry.
5. In past Commission proceedings, many persons and or organisations respondent to this award have chosen not to appear in person.
6. Past non-appearance of persons and/or organisations respondent to this award indicates that the expense and time involved in personal service by prepaid registered post to all persons and/or organisations as aforesaid, are not warranted.
7. Such other reasons as the Commission sees fit.

Dated 19 July 2008.
